

October 1942

- Thurs 1 A hard frost this morning I was busy at missing accounts. Frank and Pat Bell left for Prince Rupert to join their Regiment
- Frid 2 Blowing a strong West wind. Cold with R 24 to see Duncan's horses. Cloudy with a few showers
- Sat 3 A fine clear day and blowing a strong West wind We drove over to town towards evening
- Sun 4 A fine clear day still blowing a strong West wind very cold towards evening
- Mon 5 A hard frost this morning. Fred at work for the W.S. Blowing a strong West wind Very cloudy this evening
- Tue 6 Started to rain early this morning and continued for a short time but very cloudy. Fred as before
- Wed 7 A hard frost this morning. Fred as before A fine clear day
- Thurs 8 A fine clear day cloudy towards evening a light shower to night
- Frid 9 Frost during the night but a fine clear day cloudy towards evening. I had dinner and stayed for the night
- Sat 10 Very cloudy this morning but cleared towards noon. I drove over and got the mail this evening
- Sun A fine clear day