

1922

January

Saturday 7

blowing a strong west wind very mild all day. self not feeling very well.

Sunday 8

2 Indians arrived from Davis
Camp weather fine

Monday 9 a fine mild day self busy in store trader arrived from Cache Creek

Tuesday 10

blowing a strong west wind self very busy at wood

Wednesday 11 a fine clear day 2 Indians and from Japansias Camp report the and killed very little they left at once after doing their business Jim & 2 others arrived from the North they have done fairly well they report the Creeks coming into their country from Hay River

Thursday 12

self busy in store the Indians left towards evening Thawing all day