

November 1927

Wednesday 30

Continued cold and strong with snow 22 below this a.m. Self at odd jobs cut a trail on the hill in afternoon. Brown's came up from Taylor's flat where he has been working for McHenry's he is now going to work for Paisley

December 1927

Thursday 1

A very heavy fall of snow all day. Most have fallen about 10 in of snow. Self at odd jobs. The boys brought 2 loads of Hay

Friday 2

Snow again today and continued until noon and then cleared up very mild towards evening. Miller went up to the Post office to get the mail but it will not get in until tomorrow on account of deep snow. Self not feeling very well.

Saturday 3

Cloudy and mild. Miller got load of Hay and then went for the mail which got in at noon. Self at odd jobs. Very cloudy and overcast towards evening and looks like more snow