

October 1933

Wednesday 11

We started thrashing with ~~Thomson~~ Thomson thrasher we thrashed 310 bush wheat and 190 bush oats. They finished about 5 o'clock this evening. They will thrash for Willie & Laurence tomorrow

Thursday 12

Blowing a strong gale of west wind all day very hard on the thrashers thrash at Angus place

Friday 13

Still blowing a strong west wind they finished thrashing at Angus this morning and moved to Thomson Johnny prepared to leave for Siskina but they went to Angus place to camp and will leave there tomorrow morning

Saturday 14

I went over to Angus to see the boys they left about 9 o'clock. Still blowing a strong west wind

Sunday 15

~~Saturday 14~~ Continues cold and stormy I drove down to the Ranch this morning very cold towards evening
