

June 1937

Saturday 19

A fine clear day Blowing a strong west wind all day I drove over to the H.B. this morning for a few papers. Fred got the mail. Ed Shaw and his son drove from L.S. Lake for a visit. Ed Shaw and his son came in on the mail from ^{L.S. Lake} ~~the west~~ for a visit.

Sunday 20

A fine mild John McLeod
came over for a visit.

Monday 21

Weather fine very hot Fred took some mail to the Post-Office. Cloudy towards evening and we had a heavy shower of rain.

Tuesday 22

Continues fine warm weather
I was busy in the garden and at job. Fred went to the Pine River to see the mucklows.

Very cloudy

this evening
Self not well
